All dogs will be evaluated at the first session by the trainers for their appropriateness for the program. In order to ensure the safety of the participants and dogs enrolled in the program, aggressive dogs will be removed from the program. The decision of the trainers is final. Please note that the owners and handlers of the dogs shall be solely responsible for any injury or damage caused by their dog. Depending on the ability of the youth to control the dog, parents may be required to participate in training sessions on a case by case basis. By enrolling in the program you agree to these terms and conditions.

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Rockland County provides equal program and employment opportunities.
